Our Lost Telegraphic Weather Reports.

DAMAGE TO FRUIT GROWERS.

Bogus Lottery Tickets Sold in San Francisco.—Captain Von Helms Suspended.

Special to the Herald by the Associated Press.

SAN FRANCISCO, January 11.—The order by Gen. Hazel cutting off special weather reports from Los Angeles has occasioned a general feeling of dissatisfaction among the fruit raisers of that section and among others having large interests centering there. The special weather reports telegraphed to Los Angeles have kept fruit growers acquainted with the condition of the weather at various points, information of evident value being thus given. Sacramento is included in the order from Washington. The cost of bulletins per diem is said to have been only about one dollar for each place. Without proper warning of approaching storms great values in fruits which are curing may be lost. A look recalls the fact that during a storm two years ago, of the approach of which it was given, the value of many thousands of dollars worth of fruit was lost. The statement is made by a representative of the firm of William T. Coleman & Co., that rather than have a special bulletin discontinued that firm would undertake to defray the cost. The following was furnished as an estimate of the value of the various crops to be benefited by the special weather reports which are ordered to be discontinued: Raisins, $800,000; grapes not converted into raisins, $600,000; oranges, $1,000,000; fresh fruit, peaches, apricots, etc., $300,000; total, $2,700,000. The same gentleman said last year when it was proposed to discontinue this service, that firm announced that in that event it would undertake to defray the cost of it itself. You can, if you like, say the same of us now. The expense would be about $2.50 a day, as we have not the advantage of a special contract with the telegraph companies, as the government has. Last year the official service saved us about $100,000. This fact furnished alone a strong criterion of the importance of the service to this coast.

UNLUCKY NUMBERS.

Hoggs Tickets for the Louisiana Lottery on Sale.

SAN FRANCISCO, January 11.—The fact has just been learned that bogus Louisiana Lottery tickets have been manufactured in this city for over a year. The discovery was made through the presentation of one of these tickets, the number of which had drawn a prize. The lottery company declared it a forgery, and an investigation followed, the result of which is made known to-day. The tickets were made at the lithographic place of G. D. Baker, in this city. The place was searched by detectives, who seized a number of lithographing stones and dies from which impressions of bogus tickets were taken, and also a large amount of tickets to October, November and December. The names of the men who ordered the lithographing and made up the tickets have been ascertained by the police, but not made public, and warrants are issued for their arrest.

The Strikers on the Night Track
SAN FRANCISCO, January 11.—The striking carmen have adopted a new plan to bring about a successful end of their strike. The plan, which is as follows, will go into operation to-morrow morning. The men have leased five wagons and twenty horses and procured a large stable. The wagons will make regular trips from the ferry to the Central Avenue terminus of the Sutter street railroad for the accommodation of people who withhold their patronage from the roads. Before the end of the week the men expect to have several large busses on the road. No fare will be charged on the line but in each wagon a box will be placed to receive contributions from passengers who can afford and are disposed to contribute a small sum to assist the men in their struggle.

Missing Miss Smith.
SAN FRANCISCO, January 11.—Mystery still surrounds the sudden disappearance of Tillie Smith, who was to have been married to S. C. Henry, Saturday evening. Miss Smith telegraphed from Oakland last night to her sister in this city that she was all right and would return. It is stated that the cause of her disappearance was a misunderstanding with her lover. The appeal is also made that the couple will be married to-day, thus avoiding further notoriety.

A Captain Suspended.
SAN FRANCISCO, January 11.—Local inspectors of steam-boilers have suspended for thirty days Captain Von Helms, late commander of the steamer Los Angeles. Sometime last month while the steamer was entering Monterey bay, in a dense fog the Captain left his post on deck and intrusted the command to his mate, who was not familiar with navigation of the bay. The Los Angeles narrowly escaped a disaster as a consequence.

Frost at Riverside.
SAN FRANCISCO, January 11.—W. T. Coleman & Co., of this city, have received a dispatch from Riverside stating that the mercury Sunday night had been down as low as 21 degrees Fahrenheit and that 50 per cent. of the orange crop is reported destroyed. As 25 per cent. was lost by a previous cold snap this leaves but 25 per cent. which may be marketed. The loss will be several hundred thousand dollars.

The T. & P. to Carry Oranges.
SAN FRANCISCO, January 11.—H. C. Logan, general freight agent of the Texas & Pacific Railroad, will leave here in a day or two for Los Angeles, with the intention of entering the general fight for the orange carrying trade.

The Stolen Bullion.
NOGALES, Arizona, January 11.—It is now learned that the value of the bullion stolen while being transported from San Augustine mine is $25,000. The two men arrested have been released. No clue to the robbers exists.

Disease Germs in Milk.

SAN FRANCISCO, January 11.—Dr. F. V. Hopkins, microscopic specialist of this city, has been recently investigating a charge against the quality, cleanliness and healthiness of milk supplied by city dairies. He examined milk from a number of dairies and has come to the conclusion that two-thirds of the dairies furnish milk containing germs of consumption. He says that many diseases as diphtheria typhoid and scarlet fevers, measles, croupylosis and consumption are liable to be developed by these germs transmitted from the milk to the blood of those who consume the fluid.

The Weather.

SAN FRANCISCO, January 11.—The barometer is lowest in eastern Washington Territory, where it is over half an inch below normal, and in highest near San Francisco. Rain has fallen in Oregon and Washington Territory. The amounts are as follows: Tatoosh Island 1.23, Olympia 1.00, Astoria 1.31, Portland 2.0, Roseburg 1.5, Spokane Falls 1.2, Walla Walla .26, Astoria 0.1, and an inappreciable rainfall in the extreme northern portion of California.

The Caucus Adjourned till Friday.

SACRAMENTO, January 11.—The Democratic Caucus was held in the Assembly Chamber this evening. Archibald Yell was elected President and Andrew M. Lawrence, Secretary. A small number did not attend, and the absence from the city of Senator White stated that on Friday all Democrats will be present. It is understood that at that time nomination for United States Senator will be made. The caucus adjourned until Friday evening.

Arizona Military Matters.

PREScott, A. T., January 11.—General Howard, commanding the Department of Arizona, during the absence of General Miles, has telegraphed General Andrew M. Lawrence, Secretary of War, suspending an order which is compelling stockmen to leave the Wallaptai reservation. General Mason, accompanied by Captain Robertson, has gone to Hackberry to investigate affairs on that reservation.

Arizona's Message.

PREScott, A. T., January 11.—The message of Governor Zulick was to-day presented to each House. It is quite long and deals extensively with all questions affecting the welfare of the Territory. It recommends, among other things, the passage of a law governing the distribution of water for irrigating purposes, so that both the owners of canals and irrigators can be protected in all legitimate rights.

Earthquake in California.

SAN FRANCISCO, January 11.—This city was rocked from east to west at 4:08 o'clock this morning by an earthquake. It lasted seven seconds. No damage was done.

SPANISHPORT, Cal., January 11.—A heavy shock of earthquake was felt here at this place at 4:15 this morning.

CENTERVILLE, Cal., January 11.—A slight earthquake shock was felt here at 4:15 this morning. Its direction was north to south.

Stewart Nevada's Senator.

CARSON, Nevada, January 11.—The Senate at 2 o'clock to-day, expressed their choice for William M. Stewart for United States Senator by a vote of 14 to 6. Geo. W. Cassidy received the complimentary vote. The House voted at 3 o'clock, choosing Stewart by a vote of 28 to 10, one absent. Cassidy received 8 votes, Wren 2. They will ratify the proceedings in both Houses to-morrow.

A Theory Justified.

SANTA ROSA, January 11.—A number of geological specimens have been discovered in excavations at the Mark West coal mine near here. Among them are beds of clam shells looking fresh and bright as if just taken from their native beds. This justifies the theory that this part of the country was once below sea level.

Lient. Glassford's Successor.

SAN FRANCISCO, January 11.—Lieutenant Joseph E. Maxfield arrived in this city yesterday from Washington and has assumed the duties of Signal officer for the Pacific Coast, succeeding Lieutenant W. A. Glassford, who has been ordered to Prescott, A. T., in charge of the military telegraph lines in that territory.

Killed at a Fire.

CARLISLE, Ky., January 11.—A fire started this morning in the dentist office of Dr. H. H. Genslinger. When the walls fell Dr. Genslinger and Newton Craig were caught in the debris. They were extricated but are fatally injured. Total loss, $50,000.

Good Instructions.

DENVER, Col., January 11.—To-day the Colorado Legislature passed a concurrent resolution instructing the United States Senators from this State and requesting the representatives to vote for and use all honorable means to secure the passage of the inter-State commerce bill.

Senate.

WASHINGTON, January 11.—After a long discussion by Harris, McPherson, Camden and Aldrich, in the Inter-State Commerce bill, Cullom repeated the notice heretofore given by him that he would ask the Senate to remain in session to-morrow till the bill was disposed of. After an executive session the Senate adjourned.

Washington Notes.

The House has passed the bill creating a Department of Agriculture and Labor.

The President sent the following nominations to the Senate to-day: Postmaster at Hollister, California, Hayden Dowdy; at Monterey, California, Edward Ingram.

It is understood that negotiations with the Chinese Government, to which allusion was made in the President's message for such modifications in existing treaties as will entirely prevent the introduction of Chinese coolie labor into this country, have just been brought to a successful termination, and that in a few days an amended treaty covering this point will be submitted to the Senate for ratification.

The Senate in secret session passed a resolution advising the President to enter into negotiations with Nicaragua for concessions for an inter-oceanic canal.

EASTERN.

Trouble in the New Jersey Legislature.

THE DEMOCRATS WORSTED.

The Department of Agriculture and Labor Created—A Coal Famine Imminent.

Special to the Herald by the Associated Press.

TRENTON, N. J., January 11.—Three o'clock was the hour fixed for the organization of the Legislature, but at that time the Assembly chamber was still occupied by the Democrats in caucus, while the Republicans were stowed up at the other side of the hall. At half-past 3 o'clock, the Republican caucus closed and the Senate was called to order shortly before 4 o'clock. As soon as the roll was called it was voted to defer the organization of the body, and an adjournment was taken till 3 o'clock to-morrow. Meantime the exchange to-day the dealers said that if a settlement was not effected soon nothing could save this city. New England and Northern New York from a coal famine. There is not more than a week's supply in this city, they said, enough to sustain the city to the districts most effectual at present has been stopped and there is little possibility of the resumption of traffic until great damage has been done and thousands of men discharged, hundreds of factories shut down, large sums lost, unfilled contracts and again suffering for all.

PROBLEMS COAL FAMINE.

NEW YORK, January 11.—At the coal exchange to-day the dealers said that if a settlement was not effected soon nothing could save this city. New England and Northern New York from a coal famine. There is not more than a week's supply in this city, they said, enough to sustain the city to the districts most effectual at present has been stopped and there is little possibility of the resumption of traffic until great damage has been done and thousands of men discharged, hundreds of factories shut down, large sums lost, unfilled contracts and again suffering for all.

CALIFORNIA RAISINS.

DANGER OF OVERCROWDING THE Philadelphia Market.

NEW YORK, January 11.—The Commercial Bulletin says that California raisins have developed an easier tendency, due wholly to the actions of Western operators, particularly in Chicago. In that city some holders endeavored to work off some of their surplus stock, and to assist them in this they selected Philadelphia as the market to bring their goods to the attention of Eastern buyers. The supplies forwarded are of very good quality, though probably not up to the standard of the principal packers that have been sold here since the opening of the season. They are fresh goods, and with the average buyer would be taken without hesitation. These are offered in Philadelphia at $1.40 for 2 Crown, loose; $1.55 for 3 Crown, and $1.85 for London. The most popular brands of this market are held for selling at $1.40 to $1.50, and $1.70 to $2, respectively.

If Chicago holds to its former course it is doubtful if our city commissioners can maintain the market, and the result will be a loss to California shippers.

Verona Baldwin Again.

CHICAGO, January 11.—Miss Fannie V. Baldwin, claiming to be a niece of the millionaire Lucky Baldwin, of California, has been locked up at the Harrison-street station for the past several days, it being presumed from her eccentric conduct and talk that she is insane. Dr. Moore, one of the city physicians, after a long and rigid examination, gave it as his opinion that she is insane. She is now held awaiting the action of the court of the Insanity Institution. Dr. Birnbaum, with whom family Miss Baldwin formerly resided, also called upon the Democratic situation worse that ever. The Democrats confess that after this exhibition in their own ranks, they can predict nothing as to the vote for Senator. Governor Abbott, however, has not lost heart. He believes that he can rally his forces sufficiently to solidify the Democracy, before the joint meeting takes place. The Republicans are jubilant and the Sewall people are confident.

A GOOD LAW.

THE NEW DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE AND LABOR.

WASHINGTON, January 11.—The bill for the establishment of a Bureau of Agriculture and Labor as passed by the House to-day, provided that there shall be at the seat of government an executive department to be known as the Department of Agriculture and Labor, under the control of a Secretary of Agriculture and Labor, and an assistant secretary. There shall be in the department of Agriculture and Labor, a division which shall be under the charge of the commissioner of Labor who shall hold his office four years, and shall receive five thousand dollars per year.

The Commissioner shall collect information upon the subject of labor, its relation to capital, hours of labor, rate of wages, cost of production of articles produced, earnings of laboring men and women, means of providing for their material, social, intellectual and moral prosperity, and the best means to protect life and prevent accidents in mines, works, workshops, factories and other places of industry. The Secretary is empowered to inquire into the causes of discontent which may exist between employers and employees within the United States, and to invite and hear sworn statements from both of such parties concerning the matters in controversy.

CONGRESSIONAL.

WASHINGTON, January 11.—After a long discussion by Harris, McPherson, Camden and Aldrich, in the Inter-State Commerce bill, Cullom repeated the notice heretofore given by him that he would ask the Senate to remain in session to-morrow till the bill was disposed of. After an executive session the Senate adjourned.

THE COAL STRIKE.

Riotous Demonstrations of Strikers—A Famine Imminent.

RICHMOND, Va., January 11.—Riotous demonstrations on the part of the striking employees of the old Dominion Steamship Co. at Newport News occurred to-day. A telegram from L. Bremon, mineral traffics manager of the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad at Newport News to the vice-president of the company says: The strikers have taken possession of pier No. 2, and set fire to the bath house of the Old Dominion Land Company and perpetrated other outrages. Bremon asked for an armed force to protect the company property and to arrest the offenders, Judge Peck, of Warwick county, has made a formal demand upon the Governor for military aid and he has taken prompt action in the matter by ordering three companies, two white and one colored from Richmond and one white company and one colored company from Hampton to proceed at once to the scene of the disturbance.

PROBLEMS COAL FAMINE.

NEW YORK, January 11.—At the coal exchange to-day the dealers said that if a settlement was not effected soon nothing could save this city. New England and Northern New York from a coal famine. BRUSSELS, January 11.—The superior officers of the army have been officially notified to be ready in the event of a rapid mobilization of troops, and the general inspection which is usually held in the summer has been ordered for February.

A NOVEL METHOD.

HOW AN IRISH TENANT AVOIDED EVICTION.

DUBLIN, January 11.—At Ross Manor, Limerick, to-day Landlord Dester attempted to evict tenant who owes more than seven hundred pounds rent. The police found the house barricaded and there was a pile of stones outside the door where Father Little was chained in such a way that the police would be obliged to molest him if they should attempt to force an entrance into the house. A large crowd gathered and threatened the police, who made a charge against the crowd, using their batons freely, while the priest, still chained at the door, vigorously denounced them. Ultimately the landlord agreed to let the tenant have the farm at eighteen years purchase.

A CONTEMPORARY yesterday published an interview with an accomplished newspaper man, on the subject of John Roach, whose death had just been telegraphed from the East. How very much debauched the average conscience has become in the use of money in politics is there well illustrated. The whole story went to show what pains the dead shipbuilder had been at, in his life-time, to carry elections in favor of his party, by means of lavish and, therefore, of course, a corrupt use of money. Roach took long journeys, spent much time and money, got manufacturers and millionaires together, whom he lectured on the necessity of putting up large sums of money to carry close states. The "Soap" campaign of the redoubtable Dorsey, of most unsavory reputation, was specially singled out as an example of Roach's skill and success in this line. He was the partner of Dorsey, it seems, in all that was done in Indiana in that memorable election. The story is told, and teller, reporter and paper, all Republican, seem all highly gratified, seem all to treasure in happy memory, the deeds of the dead hero. Yet what does it all mean? It means that Roach was an adroit politician, and as unscrupulous, as he was adroit. It means that he took active part in corrupting elections, in raising money to buy votes. It means an apotheosis of dishonest methods in elections, the defeating of the will of the people, and subverting the very fundamental principles which underlie popular government. All this is not an omen of good to the country.

MONEY in politics is one of the worst evils of our day, and it is one which is growing at an alarming rate. So prevalent has the corrupting use of money become that the people are accustomed to it, and the popular conscience is no longer shocked when called on to contemplate the fact. The United States Senate is too openly looked upon as a goal to be reached by a lavish expenditure of money. The great state of New York elects a senator this winter. The legislature at Albany is Republican, and there are the names of three men of that party before the public as claimants for the place. Two of them are millionaires. Miller has no known qualifications for the place beyond the fact that he has money, which he will spend. He of course favors capital at the expense of labor, is an extreme protectionist, and votes for all monopoly measures. Morton is another man chiefly known as a money getter and a money saver. Both are men of some ability, but their talents have been devoted exclusively to making money. They are not remarkable as statesmen. The third man is Roscoe Conkling. Did the members of the legislature vote for the man of their choice, for the man best qualified, the man best versed in statecraft, he would go to Washington. But will he go?

VIGOROUS in this State should leave no stone unturned to procure the passage of the Sweet Wine Bill, and of the Bogus Wine Bill. The former will remit a tax of ninety cents per gallon on brandy used in the fortification of all sweet wines. Los Angeles county is particularly interested in this measure, inasmuch as a great deal of port, angelica and other fortified wines are made here. The other bill proposes the labeling of all sorts of fruit wines and fruit brands. There is a great deal of wine made at the East from fruit. Much of this stuff is also converted into a so-called brandy. If these products are as good as those made from the grape, the makers cannot object to marking their true quality on each package offered for sale. If they are not up to the standard of grape wines and brandies, it is an eminently just measure that they should be so labeled. It is an act of justice due to the makers of grape products, and it is due to all who consume these goods.

I. W. HELLMAN is represented as having withdrawn from the senatorial contest, because he had found that his election was impossible without the use of money. We hope that this report is not correct. We hope so because we hope Mr. Hellman is not out of the contest. We have entertained the hope that the southern part of the State would be recognized, and the entire State honored by being represented in the Senate by this able and distinguished citizen, this unwavering Democrat and public-spirited gentleman. We hope it is incorrect too, because we are loath to believe that California is to be represented in the Senate by any person whose election is due to an improper use of money. The Democracy of the State owes it to the party that no such imputation rest upon the representatives of the party who now sit in Sacramento.

INDIANA and New Jersey seem to be in a rather ugly snarl in their legislatures in the matter of electing a senator of the United States for each state. The Republicans seem disposed to stop short of no high-handed measures necessary to strengthen their slight majority in that body. It is too late in the day for such measures to succeed. The hold-over senator dodge in this state seems to have "died in the bornin," and it is likely these nefarious tricks in the above states will find a like early grave.EMINENTLY in the right direction is the step taken by the Democratic House of Representatives at Washington, to establish a Department of Agriculture and Labor. These two branches embrace nine-tenths of all the people. They represent the true wealth of the Nation. All that we have of material good comes directly or indirectly out of the ground, and it is by labor all the benefits of life are made available. These paramount interests cannot receive too much consideration and care.CALIFORNIA having the anomalous conditions of a Democratic Senate presided over by a Republican Lieutenant-Governor, a change is found necessary in the rules. Where the presiding officer is of the party dominant in the Senate, the courtesy is done him of allowing him to name all the committees, which he does, of course, after conference with the leaders of the party. Mr. Waterman being a Republican, the Senate will elect the committees.

The bill to appropriate $150,000 for a Federal building in Los Angeles has been favorably reported to the Senate. There is every reason to believe it will pass. At the best, by the time the building is finished, Los Angeles will be a city of 100,000 inhabitants. The postoffice, United States Courts, Land Office, etc., will all need such a home. The saving of rents will justify the outlay, not to speak of the convenience of the people.

COLD weather of unusual severity is reported from all points in the state. In California no better sign of snow is known that a cold wave. It is a rare occurrence for us to get three nights of light frost, and fail to receive immediately thereafter a generous rain. It has failed once already this year, and therefore, is not likely to fail again. If the cold lasts a few days, we shall expect a downpour after it.

L. J. ROSE is the chairman of the Committee on Viticulture in the State Senate. Los Angeles has conferred a great and lasting benefit on the entire State, in the sending of two such men to the Senate as represent us there. That body has put the two men where they will do the most service. Rose is the fittest man in the whole State to occupy the place he is put in.

THE HERALD hereafter will quote the fluctuations in the price of silver in the markets of the world daily. This will be a great advantage to many subscribers in the mines of Southern California. Several of them have expressed a desire to know these quotations, and it is out of deference to these requests that we have made special efforts to procure them.

INDIANA Democrats should not dispute the right of the newly elected Lieutenant-Governor to take his seat. The offices chosen in 1884 resigned, and both parties put candidates in nomination for the vacancy. The Republican was elected, and it seems to be a breach of good faith to "go back" on the compact tacitly entered into.

S. M. WHITE at the head of the committee on irrigation is a happy affair to the state at large. Mr. White's presence in the senate is something the people have reasons to felicitate themselves on.
